XNorthcult – An artistic evolution in conjunction with Exeter Northcott

September brings the second stage of exhibitions from the xNorthcult Gallery, “Revelation”

The exhibition will feature new work from xNorthcult favourites Lawson E. Rudge, Lee Godfrey and Darcane Arts and will also introduce some new names from across the region.

Those who visited the “unknown” exhibition and helped us celebrate the launch of the new gallery space, will know that we pride ourselves on the diversity of art and arts based activities that form our unique programming. There will be something to suit all persuasions; great art and great live music to build on the success of our launch.

We are constantly looking for innovative artists to become involved in this project so if you are interested, please check out the website or contact us on xnorthcult@yahoo.co.uk

Tell your friends and join the evolution!
